A WORD FROM PAUL WALKER

“It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in man.” (Psalm 118:8)

As Christie and I were wandering the streets of St. Andrews, Scotland the night before we said goodbye to our oldest daughter, we saw a sign with that verse from Psalm 118 in the window of a storefront church. In our anxiety and sorrow at leaving Hilary to begin her student life at University of St. Andrews, the message on the sign was a message straight from God. It was aimed right at our hearts - it was just what we needed.

Human fears arise. Will she be happy? Will she be OK? How do we let her go? The fact that St. Andrews University and its town are safe and wonderful only takes you so far. There are still the “What Ifs.” What if she gets sick or depressed? Or worse, what if she falls in love, marries a Scot and lives forever across the sea!

God is the God of the What Ifs. He is the only One in whom we can ultimately trust. Confidence in God, rather than in man, is confidence in the right place, a place that cannot be shaken.

You have something happening in your life right this very moment that causes you to worry. You have something in your life that makes you ask “what if?”. What I would wish to tell you is this: It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in man. I’m right there with you.

Ever Yours,

Paul

PACEM

Once again Christ Church will be partnering with other local congregations to help with PACEM (People and Congregations Engaged in Ministry), a Charlottesville ministry that provides food and shelter to the area homeless during the winter months. We'll be teaming up with Church of Our Savior October 30-November 5 and Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church January 15-28. This year, the Christ Church PACEM efforts will be led by Daniel Moore and Willis Logan (two parishioners in the ordination process), along with Brooks Tate (our Urban Missioner and a Christ Church Fellow). They will have additional help from two of our other Christ Church Fellows: Palmer Ware and Josh Bascom. We'll need assistance from parishioners with preparing and serving meals, doing laundry, and helping with overnight shifts. Keep an eye out for details as we get closer.

- Dave Johnson

The word's out! This month we will whet your appetite to read John Stott's easy to read, but packed with practical thoughts "Why I Am a Christian." Full of history, Christian truth, as well as his own story, Stott draws pictures of lives touched by Christ. His down-to-earth incisive pictures of people, modern yet also historical, will cause a response by the reader. Dr. Stott was Rector of All Souls Church in London where he offered a noon-time service for downtown business people (the men came in black bowler hats and black umbrellas!). I was fortunate to hear him preach and still remember it. He later went on to preach and teach throughout the world. He is best known for his classic "Basic Christianity" which has drawn many to our Lord.

REALLY BIG NEWS!!!

VISIT THE NEW SUNDAY SCHOOL BLOG

<http://kidsatchristchurch.blogspot.com>

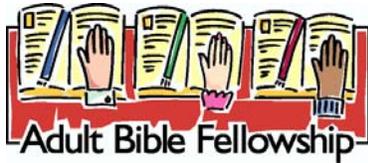

At Christ Church we want to facilitate collaboration and interaction between our classroom activities and our families. To that end, Mary Boyce Hicks has constructed a new blog: Christ Church Kids. We plan to post weekly lesson wrap ups and other pertinent material. We honestly want to facilitate conversation, so please let us know what you think.

As a quick overview, all of our children are hearing the message that God cares deeply for them. The pre- K and Kindergarten children are being introduced to Moses. The children are learning that God chose and prepared Moses. They will cover the many ways God provided for His people during Moses' lifetime. The emphasis is on expressions of God's trustworthiness.

The 1st - 5th graders are being introduced to the importance of obedience through the lives of Saul, David and Solomon. We are examining the grave consequences of sin under the umbrella of God's abounding mercy and grace. We are identifying obedience as a fruit of experiencing God's trustworthiness. We hope they will learn that despite our perennial disobedience, God is faithful.

We've hit the ground running this fall with a variety of Bible studies. Hopefully, we've got something for everyone. Here's a list in case you've lost track!

Monday

A Women's Bible Study on the Book of Colossians takes place on Monday evenings at the home of Adrienne Keller from 7:30-9 p.m.; 2803 Brookmeere Rd. Join them!

Thursday

There is a Women's Bible Study, which meets on Thursday mornings from 9:30-11 a.m. They are studying Praying the Names of Jesus, using a book by Anne Spangler. Feel free to come whenever it suits your schedule.

A Men's Bible Study on the Gospel of Mark meets on Thursdays from 7-8 a.m. in Meade Hall. Coffee & bagels available at 7! Drop-ins are always welcome!

Urban Missions

In the August/September Messenger, the Organ Committee promised that by now we would have a relatively firm timeline for completing the chancel preparation for the actual installation of our new Hook organ. After several weekly meetings with our architects and contractor, your Organ Committee decided that a January 2011 start provides all parties; architects, contractor, and Christ Church, the necessary time to make good decisions and avoid as many potential costly unforeseen contingencies as possible. A January start date means that the chancel renovation should be completed by the first of May 2011. The Andover Organ Company will then begin installation of casework, so that the chancel is presentable for our string of 6 weddings beginning May 28th. The complete process of organ installation will take approximately 10 weeks, making the overall process about 7 months.

Leading up to the January start decision, several important issues were resolved:

The Vestry conceptually approved our contractors estimated budget that included construction of a full basement room under the chancel; however, before actual construction begins, the Vestry must approve a final fixed budget to be provided by our contractor, R.E. Lee. For them to provide a fixed price budget, they will need detailed construction drawings, design development drawings, and the results of exploratory core drillings in the area under the chancel to be excavated. Currently both of these needs are being addressed.

First, the basement room under the chancel, ideally, will include a partitioned organ blower room and sufficient room to contain all of our mechanicals such as HVAC., electrical, and plumbing as well as storage area. Excavating a room of this size presents construction challenges and unknowns such as what rock or other impediments might be encountered that would significantly increase the cost of the construction. In an attempt to address this contingency, the Organ Committee has asked our architects to have an independent company prepare a cost proposal to perform some core drillings under the chancel that will help determine just how much excavation is feasible. By the time you read this, the Organ Committee expects to have received the proposal for core drillings.

To address R.E. Lee's second need, your Organ Committee is continuing to meet on a weekly basis with our architects to address each and every possible detail related to achieving, not only a beautiful, but a fully functional chancel. In architectural terms, this phase is called design development phase that will provide our contractor with a detailed construction plan. This coupled with the results of the core drillings, should provide R.E. Lee sufficient information to calculate a fixed price budget. Inevitably, R.E. Lee will cover themselves with contingency clauses in their contract proposal that potentially could add to the fixed price. The Organ Committee is attempting to address and eliminate as many of these potential contingencies as possible.

All of this process takes time and patience; however, the Organ Committee has been blessed by the Holy Spirit with a great combination of expertise, camaraderie, and devotion to helping Christ Church build an enduring foundation for worship and devotion for many generations.
